First in A Series: Meet Our Board

Lynn Ankey, President

Over the next several months, I'll use this column to profile our OIPA Officers and Directors. Not only will the profiles serve as a way to humanize the names you may only read about in the general and Board meeting minutes, they will be a nice addition to our website on the "Meet Our Board" page. I'll go first.

Where did you grow up? I moved around a bit, due to my Dad's job in sales with General Electric. I was born in Oconomowoc, Wisconsin, but spent my childhood in Ohio, Michigan, New Jersey, and moved to Illinois in 1990, just before my senior year and third high school.

How long have you lived in Old Irving Park and who is in your household? My husband Jonathan and I moved from the Lakeview neighborhood to the 4300 block of Keeler in August 2004, when we were expecting our first child, Ethan (who somehow turns 13 on 2/16). We had never heard of OIP and were a little reticent to move so "far west". Our daughter, Elise, joined us in 2008. We have no pets, but are perennially thinking about getting chickens.

Work outside of OIPA? I have a degree in Finance from the University of Illinois and was a licensed CPA. I worked for Arthur Andersen and Deloitte & Touche for 10 years doing management consulting. I left professional work once we had Ethan. In addition to serving on the OIPA Board, I lead the Belding Parent Group at my kids' school.

Favorite local business: UpBeat Music & Arts. It's my kids third home (Belding being their second).

Breakfast drink of choice: Black coffee and grapefruit juice.

Interests/Hobbies: Music (going to shows, listening, playing), TV (some of it trashy), cooking (most of it healthy), wine (all of it yummy), and gardening (specifically growing as much of our own food as possible).

Favorite things to do outside: kayaking and snorkeling

Profession you would have if given a "do over": Real estate agent

Last book you read: Dry by Augusten Burroughs. Elise and I are slogging through the Harry Potter series, however.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

More About OIPA President Lynn Ankey

Craziest thing you've ever done: That I'm willing to share publicly? Skydiving. Once. It was enough.

History with OIPA: I think it was early 2006 when I answered an "ad" on the OIPA newsletter bulletin board looking for parents of young kids to organize. I met Renee Linnemeyer and we resurrected the Parents Committee and began the now popular OIPA Parents Discuss Google Group. I have also served on the Board of Directors as a Director (2009?), Vice President (2013) and now President (2015).

Favorite part of serving on the OIPA board: For me, it always comes back to people. I like working with neighbors who care about our community. Also, I have learned a tremendous amount about how this city works (and, at times, doesn't).

Hope for the future of OIPA: I would love to welcome new residents into the fold of our organization and our board. This civic began in 1983 and I'm constantly thinking about the name of the volunteer game: succession planning. Every healthy organization thrives when there's a mix of people, some with institutional knowledge and others with fresh ideas and energy.

Club Members Reflect on Loss of Two

The Irving Park Garden Club is saddened to have lost two loyal members recently. Luella Yoder (a 40-year resident of the 3800 block of Lowell) passed away in December due to complications from West Nile Virus. Susan Carter (4200 block of Keystone) passed away in January after suffering a stroke before Christmas.

Luella Yoder Blessed with Talent

Bette Reetzke describes her friend "LU" as very quiet and unassuming, but God blessed her with many talents. "She will be remembered as a long-term caregiver to various neighborhood children, a top cook and seamstress, and a baker of pies and rolls. She delivered fresh bread weekly to local households, and she also made beautiful wedding cakes. LU was a gardener of many things, especially sweet peas, dahlias, African Violets, Jerusalem Cactus, fantastic green beans, and raspberries, which each year were turned into delicious jam."

Susan Carter A Giving Personality

"Susan Carter was the most giving person I've ever known," said Maureen Taylor. "She was an active garden club member, volunteering at the garden cleanups, coming early to meetings to help with the set up, and staying after for cleanup as well. She was a plant lover, planting up her little ground floor balcony where she fed the birds. She also planted marigolds in her condo's public space. She was very upbeat, and she loved her cat, Mabel, who is adjusting well to her new home."

Susan Carter at OIPA's April 2011 general meeting.

Both Luella and Susan were fixtures at both IPGC and OIPA meetings. We will miss them and their participation in our events immensely. On behalf of the Old Irving Park Association and the Irving Park Garden Club, we send our deepest condolences to their family and friends.

Prepping for Spring — Claudia Hine

In the middle of winter, as gardeners long for spring, the Irving Park Garden Club has been making plans for its 2018 season. Board members Claudia Hine, Joe Pintor, Sue Geisler, and Karen Whitehead have met to strategize an agenda for the upcoming year.

While our plans are still being finalized, I can tell you that our first meeting of the season will take place Saturday, March 17, at 10 a.m. We'll meet at St. John's Episcopal Church, 3857 N. Kostner Ave.

Our speaker will be Irene Flebbe, assistant director of Trailside Museum of Natural History in River Forest, part of the Forest Preserves of Cook County. Irene's talk will be on Spring Garden Prep, a perfect subject to get us off to the right start in March.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the garden club, join us on March 17. We'll be renewing everyone's dues and signing up new members. It's just $20/year to belong to our group, and I don't believe our meeting will interfere with your plans to celebrate St. Patrick's Day later that day.

You can follow us on Facebook/IrvingParkGardenClub or e-mail claudia.hine@yahoo.com for more information.

Soup & Bread for Carlson February 25th

Glenn Kotche and daughter give Soup & Bread a big thumbs up.

Cold and snow bringing you down? Thaw out with a steaming bowl of soup from great restaurants and local cooks served among friends—all for the good of neighborhood programs. Carlson Community Services will host its sixth Soup & Bread fundraiser on Sunday, February 25th from 5–7 p.m.

Modeled after a popular winter event at The Hideout Bar, Soup & Bread for Carlson will be held at Irving Park Lutheran Church gym, 4057 N. Harding Ave. Up to ten satisfying soups from local restaurants and neighborhood cooks will be served. The soup menu wasn't final by newsletter deadline, but past participants have included restaurants like Community Tavern, Smoque, Bread & Wine and Hot Woks/Cool Sushi. The event will also feature music, a raffle, kid's crafts and bake sale—fun for all ages.

All proceeds will go to Carlson Community Services, a 501c3 non-profit connecting the Irving Park community with programs that enrich lives through education, culture and service. Carlson's programs include the Magic After-School Place, Three Brothers Community Garden and the Irving Park Fine Arts Concert Series.

For information on ticket prices and how to volunteer for the event, visit www.carlsoncommunityservices.org/event/soup-bread/ or contact Liz Mills at 773.398.6766 or lizmills@carlsoncommunityservices.org.

Birds Brighten Winter Blues

— Claudia Hine

Roberta Asher, Chicago Audubon Society, educated Irving Park Garden Club members with a presentation on backyard birds.

Faced with a long cold winter ahead, Irving Park Garden Club members took solace in a presentation on backyard birds given by Roberta Asher from the Chicago Audubon Society (CAS). She entertained and enlightened us in October at our last meeting of the 2017 season—and she delivered bags of birdseed our members ordered from the CAS wild birdseed sale.

More than 40 attendees enjoyed pizza and wine as we learned more about the habits of birds common to our neighborhood, including cardinals, robins, chickadees, mourning doves, nuthatches, blue jays, house finches, sparrows, hummingbirds, and woodpeckers. Asher gave us tips on how to attract the birds we want, and we listened to recordings of their calls so we could identify their songs.

She said Montrose Point Bird Sanctuary is a great place to visit in spring and fall when birds are migrating. Bird watchers can expect to see many colorful species in large quantities in the meadow at the lakefront.

We heard about Chicago Bird Collision Monitors, an all-volunteer group that helps protect and rescue migratory birds that collide with buildings in the Loop. Teams spend early morning hours recovering injured birds, and the organization collaborates with building managers and architects to prevent bird collisions.

Some terrific door prizes were given away, including a birdbath donated by Christine and Chris Gorz; six centerpieces donated by Sue Geisler, and several large containers donated by Gina Iliopoulos and Ed Caplan.

Thanks to all members for a great season—hope to see you back next year. Be sure to follow us at Facebook.com/IrvingParkGardenClub.

Members Tom Starck and Sharon Graham line up for Lou Malnati's pizza...or maybe it's for the wine.

Classes During Spring

For our spring class, participants will create their version of Filament Theatre's world premiere production of THE UNCORKER OF OCEAN BOTTLES based on the award-winning book by Michelle Cuevas (Running at Filament from April 21 – June 3). Their final creation will be presented on the amazing sandbox set specially built for Filament's professional production. (April 23 – May 21: Mondays from 4:45 – 6 p.m.).

Summer Camp

Summer camp will push that creativity even farther as participants band together to form the Filament Clue Collectors! As neighborhood detectives, participants will gather information by visiting sites all around Filament Theatre and creating a special mystery play of their very own. (Sessions 1: July 9 – 20; Session 2: July 23 – August 3).

Our final summer session will be a one week camp where participants will investigate some of the myths and legends around the constellations and create a brand new play inspired by the night sky. (August 6 – 10)

For more information or to register for classes, visit www.FilamentTheatre.org or call (773) 270-1660. Filament Theatre is located at 4041 N. Milwaukee Ave. Chicago, IL 60641. See you at Filament Theatre, where families come to play!

The Buzz at Belding — Lisa Owens, 4th Grade Reading/Social Studies Teacher

Family Reading Night

It was a cozy evening on November 29 as Belding families came to school for a fun reading event. Wearing comfy pajamas, students were treated to various staff and students reading and even performing some favorite books. From Piggie and Elephant, Where the Wild Things Are, and The True Story of the Three Little Pigs, students young and old were treated to the joy of listening and having a book read to them.

Winter Wellness Fest

Belding hosted a Winter Wellness Fest on January 18, 2018 from 5:00-6:30 p.m. The goal of the event was to engage students and families around the importance of eating well, movement, safety, and mental health. It was exciting to bring our school community together for a night of learning and fun. There were five health related workshops and five physical activity classes. In addition, there was a vendor fair with various community organizations sharing information about their programming/services. We were excited to start the new year off by providing an experience that encouraged our students and families to LIVE WELL!

Are you curious to see what Belding Elementary has to offer your child?

Each month Principal Heather Yutzy offers school tours for prospective parents. This is a great opportunity to see Belding teachers and students in action, and to learn more about our school. Upcoming tour dates include: February 20, March 20, and April 17. Tours begin at 8:00 a.m. in the school office.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS | Keeler Gardens, NFP

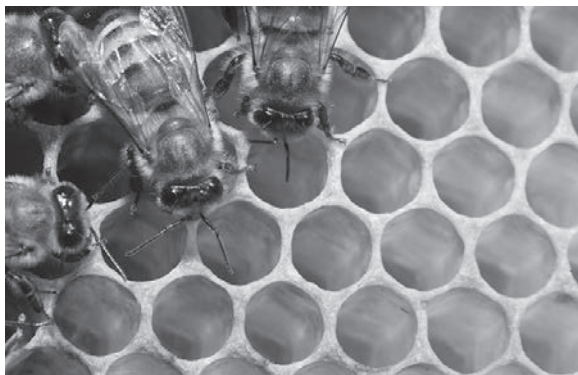

Keeler Gardens has been offering programs to connect with nature for about a year now, and we felt it was time to give our neighbors an update along with our heartfelt thanks.

We had a very active year speaking at the Chicago Flower and Garden Show, the Chicago Botanic Garden, and Lincoln Park Zoo. We had programs in schools, camps, and with cultural groups. We've opened Keeler Gardens to the community for both private and public events and supported nearby churches, the local garden club, and our community members.

We've partnered with other groups to expand our offerings:

- We are a demonstration site for the Bionutrient Food Association focusing on rebuilding our soil for nutrient dense produce.
- Host bee hives for Sloanstead honey building our natural habitat.
- One of the first organizations to provide opportunities through the youth-oriented Yolobe app piloted at Schurz High School.
- Development of an internship program at several different levels.

With every program and event, we have given participants a chance to improve their focus and knowledge base, relieve stress, and better the environment.

If you are active on Facebook and willing to engage, please follow us @KeelerGardens to learn about our Capital Campaign which started on #GivingTuesday.

And we also have an exciting announcement. Several events have coincided for an incredible start to the Campaign. A very generous donor is offering to sponsor a matching challenge for five individual donations of $1,000 up to a total of $5,000. We have already received our first $1,000 donation and are making a bold effort to raise the additional $4,000 to win the total sponsored match. It is through our community that we hope to find champions to support us with this challenge. If you have suggestions or contacts to whom we can reach out, we would happily put together a presentation or formally reach out in any way necessary to build a relationship. We cannot express to you how grateful we are for your interest, suggestions, and compliments.

Funds raised support our site and all our programs. With our sincere thanks we offer our programs to you. Please take advantage of what Keeler Gardens brings to the community, stop by, and spend a little time with us in the garden.

Please visit us at KeelerGardens.com, find us on social media @KeelerGardens, and you can contact our Executive Director, Ed Caplan, at Ed@KeelerGardens.com or 773-206-6072.

Portage Park Elementary Food Drive a Success

Thank you to the students, parents, faculty and staff of Portage Park Elementary School for organizing a food and coat drive for the Pantry in November as part of the 45th Ward Food Drive. Thanks also to Lorca Elementary School, which gathered five boxes of food during its first food drive for the Pantry in December.

Alderman John Arena and his wife, Jill (center) visited Portage Park Elementary School in November to check on the progress of the school's food and coat drive for the Pantry.

Disney Craft Fair

We also very much appreciate the efforts of the second-grade class at Disney II Magnet Elementary School, who selected the Pantry to receive the profits from their annual craft fair in December. The Pantry was chosen from about 15 charities due to the variety and reach of our programs in their community. The students presented the Pantry with a check for more than $1,400! Executive Director John Psiharis and Publicity Coordinator Craig Shutt stayed to talk with the students about the Pantry's work and answered questions during their visit.

Pantry Seeking Event Coordinators

The Irving Park Community Food Pantry is looking for organized people who could run one or more of our annual outreach programs.

Outreach Programs comprise of:

- Easter baskets preparation (for the four weeks before Easter)
- School supplies (in August) for client's children
- Coat drive which provides coats to clients during the month of October.

These are on-going events that have systems in place—but we need someone to oversee them and organize gathering materials and distributing them during Wednesday distributions. The ideal candidate is connected to others in the community who can help generate the needed donations, ensure the materials are delivered to the Pantry and recruit volunteers to help with the distribution. Co-coordinators are welcome!

Our special distributions are an opportunity for local people who want to make a tangible difference in their community through an opportunity that provides a definite start time and end time and who can coordinate and schedule others. Please note that availability on Wednesday mornings during the distribution is not a requirement to be a coordinator as long as other volunteers are committed to that time.

If you are interested or know someone who might be please contact Lee Stein at 312/608-1465 or leesstein@gmail.com for details and information.

Remembering OUR FRIEND, KEN LITTLE (1933-2017)

Our dear friend Ken Little was one of a kind. A husband, a father, a grandfather, a retired Senior Fire Alarm Operator for the Chicago Fire Department, a teacher of Chicago History at Wright Jr. College and he was also, Very Important Person (VIP) to the Irving Park Historical Society. From being a popular guest speaker, addressing a number of local history topics at meetings, to helping add color through the use of objects and commentary at a number of our Housewalks, Ken was one of those rare people who touched lives in a rich way. Ken could talk your ear off but made you want to listen to him for hours. He was our homegrown expert on not just city history but the Chicago Fire Department — its houses, services, apparatuses, communications, and most importantly the stories of its people.

Ken co-wrote several books, four volumes of the history of Chicago firehouses with Fire Department Chaplain Father John McNalis, and helped found the Fire Museum of Greater Chicago. He was described as one of the best fire alarm operators the Fire Department ever had. Former Chicago Fire Commissioner James Joyce said, "He had a second sense for what fire companies were closest," Joyce said. "He was amazing."

He and his wife Alice, who died in 1986, had ten children, including triplets.

Articles about Ken's prolific and adventurous life, can be found on the web.

A recent column-long obituary in the Chicago Sun-Times can be found at: <https://chicago.suntimes.com/news/ken-little-dies-used-vast-knowledge-of-chicago-to-help-fight-fires/>

Three of his books can be purchased from Amazon.

Construction Expected on New Library

The new Independence Branch Library, 4024 N. Elston, received demolition and building permits from the City of Chicago in December. Demolition and construction is expected to begin late winter to early spring, weather permitting.

For decades, neighbors and library users have lobbied for a new library. After the library's former location closed in 2015 due to smoke damage from an adjacent fire, momentum grew for a new and improved facility. In October, 2016, it was announced that the library would have a permanent home where the former Hollerbach Funeral Home was located

The building is a unique collaboration between the Chicago Housing Authority and the Chicago Public Library, with the library on the first two floors and four floors of affordable senior housing above. The new library takes on a contemporary aesthetic, with plenty of windows to allow natural light to flood inside. The branch will have learning spaces for all age groups, a multi-purpose community room, and a dedicated play area. John Ronaan Architects, a finalist in the competition to build the Obama Presidential Library, was chosen from a group of three finalists to design the new library.

I want to thank the Friends of Independence Library, West Walker Civic Association, Greater Independence Park Neighborhood Association, Old Irving Park Association, Rep. Jaime Andrade, the Mayor's office, Ald. Marge Laurino, Ald. Deb Mell, Ald. Carlos Ramirez-Rosa, and all the residents and neighborhood groups who advocated to make this happen.
